

Abracadabra!

Season 2: Show 3-Questions and Answers

Q-

What is the sleight called in which you secretly hide a card in your hand?

A-

Palming

Q-

Following the TV transmission of "Street Magic" in 1997, whom did Penn Jillette enthuse about, "He really, really does break new ground," adding that the show is, "The biggest breakthrough in television magic done in our lifetime." ?

A-

David Blaine

Q-

Said to be the last prestidigitator from the "Golden Age of Magic", who was the man who gave us the magic exclamation, "Sim Sala Bim"?

A-

Dante the Magician

Q-

One Belgian Illusionist took levitation one step further to create one of the greatest illusions of all time: a levitating woman who vanishes in mid-air! It happened in 1910. What is the name of this Illusionist?

A-

Servais Le Roy

Randall James Hamilton Zwinge is a stage magician, debunker, and scientific skeptic who performs under which of the following names:

- (A) The Zealous Zwinge
- (B) The Fantastic Jimmy
- (C) The Hilarious Hamilton
- > (D) The Amazing Randi

When using a "Svengali Deck", a magician can get you to pick a certain card. This is called:

- (A) Trading
- (B) Tricking
- (C) Mastering
- > (D) Forcing

Q-The magician's next trick is a mystifying one: he never handles the deck at all except at the very beginning of the trick, and again at the end! Despite this limitation, he is able to easily pull out the chosen card right out of the deck. If only you had known that he used a "Key Card" in that trick, his feat might not have seemed quite so amazing.

What did he do?

A- Controlled the location of the selected-card using the "Key-Card", which could be shorter, longer, thicker, or slicker.