

Abra-cad-a-bra!

Season 1 Show 2

Q-

The Linking Rings have been performed for years and years. If there is a gimmick involved, do you know what it's called?

A-

A Key-Ring

Q-

For which of these tricks would you use the Elmsley Count?

(A) "Blizzard"

(B) "Aces in Their Faces"

(C) "N.F.W."

(D) "Twisting the Aces"

A-

(D) Twisting the Aces

Q-

What of these is most commonly hidden in a "Thumb-Tip"?

(A) Coin

(B) Playing Card

(C) Sponge Balls

(D) Handkerchief

A-

(D) Handkerchief

Q-

Which much-missed comedian, also a member of the Magic Circle, was known for his red fez and magic that never worked? You'll get this "Just like that".

A- Tommy Cooper

Q-
Humming loudly instead of using an orchestra while performing tricks that often failed, who was the man often credited with inventing "Comedy Magic"?

A- Carl Ballantine

Q-

The ability to make an object disappear is one of the most impressive illusions that can be performed because it seems to contradict the laws of nature. The use of mirrors is especially effective when performing a particular illusion in which a person disappears into a special cabinet that has been wheeled on stage. The cabinet has a name. What is it?

A-

The Proteus Cabinet

Q-

In 1983, which magician appeared to make the Statue of Liberty disappear on live television?

A-

David Copperfield

Q- I am an amazing magician, and I just appeared to have turned water into wine in front of you! I just performed an experiment in the science of:

(A) Biology

(B) Astronomy

(C) Physics

(D) Chemistry

A- (D) Chemistry

Q-

After his entrance, the magician points to you, and asks you to join him on stage. He asks you, predictably, to "pick a card, any card." But unbeknownst to you, he "forces" a card on you! What has the magician just done?

A-

Caused you to unknowingly select a card of the magician's own choosing

Q- Another very common magic word makes fun of Latin words used in the Catholic mass. It was used as the title of a movie starring Bette Midler. It is generally used to indicate that one thing is being transformed into something else, through either sleight-of-hand or alchemy. Which magic word am I referring to?

A- Hocus-Pocus

Q-

Another very old trick involves moves like galloping, transportations, vanishes, and reappearances. Quite often a few transformations are also thrown in as a climax. What's the name of this trick?

A-

The Cups and Balls

Q-

How many cards are used for the
"Asher Twist"?

A-

Four