

Q- Which of the following best describes a pack of "Stripper Cards"?

- (A) Every other card is slightly smaller
- (B) They are all double-backed
- (C) They all have different, secret markings on each card
- (D) They each taper slightly, from top to bottom

A- (D)

Q- By the time his "Mindfreak" show finished airing in 2010, this magician had appeared on prime time TV more than any other in history. What is this magician's name?

A- Criss Angel

Q- You may have seen him on TV as a con-man, a Saturday Night Live guest, or a late-night judge, but he has always been a magician. Who is he?

A- Harry Anderson

Q- Possibly the most accomplished female magician of the 20th century, in 1988, who was the first woman to successfully perform the "Bullet Catch" in the mouth trick?

A- Dorothy Dietrich

Q Sometimes, I wear one of these to help me with my disappearing handkerchief tricks.

Which of these would do it?

- (A) A hearing aid
- (B) A pair of glasses
- (C) A false beard
- (D) A prosthetic thumb

A- (D)

Q-

The 1785 translation of "1001 Nights" from French into English gave us a popular phrase used to unlock closed and hidden doorways.

Which phrase is it?

A-

"Open Sesame"

Q After you have selected and replaced your card, making sure it was placed in the very middle of the deck, the magician asks you to write down the card that you chose. He then hands you the deck, and asks you to find your card. You are unable to find it, however, because the magician "palmed" your selected card. What did he do?

A-He hid your card in the palm of his hand

Q-

If you do an "Elmsley Count", ("Jordan Count") exactly what are you doing?

A-

Counting four cards as four,
while hiding the bottom card

Q-

Which of the following best describes a pack of "Svengali" cards?

- (A) One end shorter than the other
- (B) They are all different, secret markings on the backs of each card
- (C) They are all double-backed
- (D) Every other card is slightly smaller

A-
(D)

Q-

Which magician, in 1982, became the first non-North American recipient of the coveted "Magician of the Year" award by the Academy of Magical Arts since its inception in 1968?

A-

Paul Daniels